

MEMORANDUM OF COOPERATION BETWEEN KYRGYZ-TURKISH
MANAS UNIVERSITY
(KYRGYZSTAN) AND
ANDIJAN STATE PEDAGOGICAL INSTITUTE (UZBEKISTAN)

In order to develop inter-university cooperation, Andijan State Pedagogical Institute (ADPI) of the Republic of Uzbekistan and Kyrgyz-Turkish Manas University (KTMU) of the Kyrgyz Republic have agreed to cooperate in the following areas.

The inter-university cooperation program between ADPI and KTMU is aimed at ensuring mutual benefits in the exchange of professors, teachers, and students.

Specific collaborations shall be formalized as separate agreements based on mutual consent.

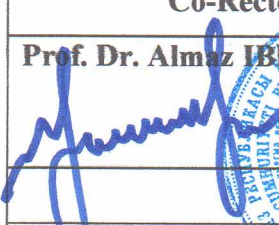

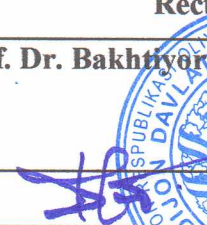

The leadership of both higher education institutions has reached an agreement on the following areas of cooperation:

1. "Mutual exchange of experience for faculty professors and teachers for teaching or short-term visits."
2. Exchange of students for scientific research purposes.
3. Exchange of master's and doctoral students for conducting fundamental research.
4. Inviting faculty members to participate in conferences and symposiums.
5. Collaboration in publishing scientific articles and research papers.
6. Organization of video conferences.
7. Planning joint research to attract internal and external resources for implementing the goals set in the cooperation agreement between the universities.
8. Planning to establish joint education programs in the 2+2 and 1+1 formats.

The term "exchange" mentioned in this memorandum does not represent a specific percentage and does not impose any financial obligations on the contracting parties.

Both higher education institutions have agreed that all financial activities required for the implementation of this agreement and any future contracts will be conducted in accordance with the rules and regulations of their respective universities. Both parties acknowledge that this agreement is based on mutual consent and does not impose any financial obligations on either institution.

"This agreement shall enter into force from the date of its signing by the parties."
